A Special Thank You, To All Who Contributed To LUMBEE HOMECOMING 2017

Noah Woods

The Board of Directors of Lumbee Regional Development Association, Inc. have selected Noah and Ruth Woods as Grand Marshals for 2017, both of whom have dedicated their professional careers to service to others and provided professional and exemplary leadership to education, community service, politics and government.

Noah Woods has shaped his life through civic and community engagement for more than 30 years. Public service has been a driving force that began with involvement in public schools, volunteering with youth in coaching Babe Ruth baseball, and active involvement in community development. He supported the location of a public library in Pembroke as part of his service in and membership in the Pembroke Jaycees where he garnered election to office as Treasurer, Vice President, Jaycee of the Year, and Booster of the Year, while also serving as Vice President of the Robeson County Young Democrats Club, and a member of the State Executive Committee.

Community service includes membership and leadership. He served as Vice President of the Young Democrats of the Robeson County Democratic Party, and as an area appointee to the advisory council of the Regional Development Association. His commitment to service expanded opportunities for him to serve 27 years as a teacher and a school principal in the public schools of Robeson County, serving at Oxendine Elementary School. Mr. Woods earned a BS Degree in Elementary Education from Pembroke State University where he is a member of the Alumni Association, a University where he was the recipient of the James W. Batten Distinguished Educator Award from the School of Education, participated in three summer National Science Foundation Institutes, and served as a Fellow in the US Department of Education.

During his career in education he maintained membership in Local, State and National professional affiliations, including the National Association of Elementary School Principals where he served as Seventh Congressional District representative, and on the Committee of concerns of Blacks and other minorities of color. He held membership in Phi Delta Kappa and actively participated in the North Carolina Association of Educators. Mr. Woods has been awarded Principle of the Year Award by the District 10 Division of the North Carolina Association of Educators and Boss of the Year Award by the Robeson County Educational Office Personnel.

Noah Woods has tempered his professional education career with political acumen in County, State, and National Government leadership and service. Elected as Robeson County Commissioner in 1990, he is currently in the 27th year of service and served nine years as Chairman. Commissioner Woods has served on the Jail Health Committee as Chairman of the Robeson County Board of Health and the Department has been recognized for excellence in environmental health, outstanding county programs for maternity services, citizen care for immunization, jail health, indigent eye care, and intensive livestock operations rules, and individual and career achievement awards by the Eastern District of the North Carolina Public Health Department. The Robeson County Health Department is recognized as an outstanding Health Department by the North Carolina Board of Health and the North Carolina County Commission.

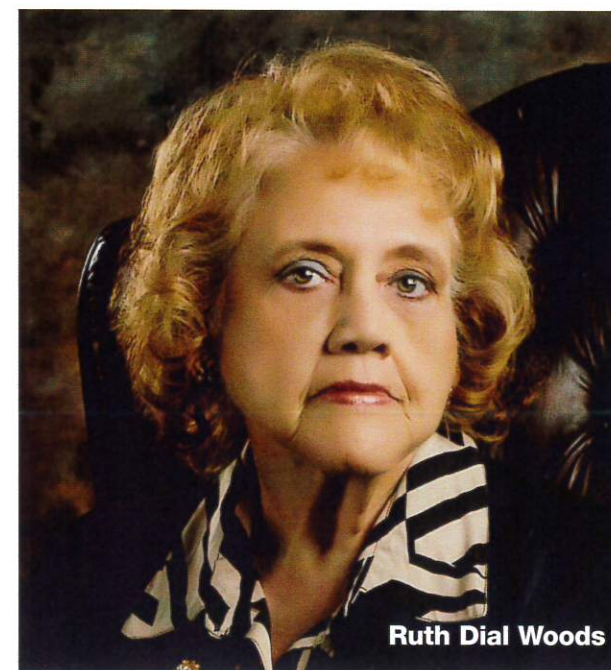

In 2016 Noah Woods, Robeson County Commissioner, received the Distinguished Service Award on behalf of the 100 counties in North Carolina for "dedicated service on the National, State, and Local levels as a Robeson County Commissioner" and he was inducted into the North Carolina of County Commissioner Hall of Fame.

Ruth Dial Woods is a native of Robeson County, North Carolina. She attended public schools in Robeson County before attaining a B.A. Degree in English and Spanish from Meredith College in Raleigh, North Carolina, a MA.Ed. in School Administration from Pembroke State University, an Ed.D. in Educational Administration at South Carolina State University and a Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instruction at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Dr. Woods served the public schools in Robeson County for 27 years as a teacher, educational media specialist, director of federal programs, and assistant and associate superintendent. After serving as an adjunct professor in the fall of 1993, Dr. Woods joined the full time faculty at Fayetteville State University where she taught educational leadership in the Master of School Administration degree program, curriculum and leadership in the doctoral program in educational leadership, coordinated the North Carolina Principal Fellows Program and the Master of School Administration Degree Program and administered the School of Education's Title III Teacher Education Program. In 1977, she received the Teacher of the Year Award for the Department of Educational Leadership and Secondary Education and the School of Education's Teacher of the Year Award.

In August 1977, Dr. Woods retired from teaching, but served as a consultant to the University-School Partnership Project and administered PROJECT REAP (Recruitment of Minorities for Advancement in the Profession), a partnership program of the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation and Fayetteville State University. More recently, Dr. Woods served as a program consultant for the Lumbee Tribal Council of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina as a part-time Tribal Administrator with administrative responsibilities for oversight of $9 million in housing and other tribal programs.

Dr. Woods has extensive experience in rural economic development and rural manpower development. She was engaged in US Department of Labor pilot and demonstration programs in the rural manpower development under the auspices of the North Carolina Fund and North Carolina Manpower Inc. She held several administrative positions in community action programs and rural manpower development. She was instrumental in the successful transfer of comprehensive rural manpower development programs to the North Carolina Manpower Program $1 Million + annually into Robeson county for job training and employment services prior to the spin off of JTPA employment programs to the North Carolina Employment Services. She has served on the advisory board of Region N Council of Governments and coordinated the infusion of The Pacific Institute's Investment in Excellence for the 90s, an employment skills training and preparation program for youth and unemployed and underemployed recommended by the National Alliance of Businesses in to JTPA programs administered by Region N council of Governments.

Dr. Woods is the recipient of numerous community, civic, state and national awards. She has balanced her academic life with service to others. Active in civil and human rights, Dr. Woods self-defines as American Indian, humanist, activist, and feminist. Selected honors and awards include the Leo Reano Award for Service to Education from the National Education Association; the North Carolina Human Relations Award from the North Carolina Association of Educators; the Henry Berry Lowry Award from Lumbee Regional Development Association; the governor's Distinguished Woman of North Carolina Award, and the Woman of Distinction Award from United Tribes of North Carolina.

Dr. Woods is the first woman to receive an at-large appointment by the North Carolina General Assembly to the University of North Carolina Board of Governors in 1985, and in March, 1999, was the only woman in the field of 10 candidates and the second highest vote-getter in the at-large category to again receive an appointment to this distinguished Board.

CHILD CARE SUBSIDY

Agency: Robeson County Department of Social Services

(910) 671-3720

Assists in making child care accessible and affordable to the families of Robeson County.

DOLLY PARTON IMAGINATION LIBRARY

Agency: United Way of Robeson

(910) 739-4249

The Dolly Parton Imagination Library helps young children develop pre-literacy skills by mailing free books once a month. All preschool children (birth through five) that live in Robeson County are eligible. A parent or legal guardian must submit an official registration form to the United Way of Robeson County, 2512-A Fayetteville Rd. Lumberton, NC 28358. Registration forms may be downloaded from the United Way of Robeson County website www.unitedwayrobeson.org or requested by calling the United Way office.

ENVIRONMENT QUALITY STAR TRACKS

Agency: Robeson County Partnership for Children, Inc.

(910) 738-6767

Childcare facilities are made aware of the components of quality care to enhance their facility using the Environment Rating Scales. Assessments of licensed facilities allow for quality enhancement materials. Technical assistance and maintenance is also provided. This activity provides an on-site resource center to all child care providers and caretakers of children ages birth through five years old.

NC PRE-K ENHANCEMENT AND SUPPORT

Agency: Robeson County Partnership for Children, Inc.

(910) 738-6767

Support is provided to NC Pre-K classrooms by providing technical assistance, consultation, and coaching on topics such as: behavior management, classroom structure, family engagement and other identified needs.

NC PRE-K TRANSPORTATION

Agency: Robeson County Partnership for Children, Inc.

(910) 738-6767

Financial assistance is provided to child care facilities to transport eligible NC Pre-K children to and from approved NC Pre-K sites. This activity ensures that children are able to attend a high quality learning environment to promote their overall development.

NURSE FAMILY PARTNERSHIP

Agency: Robeson County Health Department

(910) 671-3225

Registered nurses visit eligible women in their homes during their first pregnancy and throughout the first two years of their children's lives. The program is a statewide initiative following a national model that seeks to improve pregnancy outcomes and child health through primary prevention. Additionally, the program seeks to improve the economic self-sufficiency of the family through personal development goals.

PROGRAM COORDINATION, COMMUNITY EDUCATION, AND EVALUATION

Agency: Robeson County Partnership for Children, Inc.

(910) 738-6767

The Program Department encompasses a variety of methods aimed at increasing the capacity of early childhood initiatives and community awareness. Some of these approaches include data collection, information management, monitoring, evaluation, technical assistance, and training to support effective implementation of programs and strategies. These programs also work to enhance community collaboration and promote services funded by the partnership within the community.

PARENTS AS TEACHERS

Agency: Robeson County Health Department

(910) 738-6767

A proven home visiting model offering parents regularly scheduled personal home visits, group meetings, and developmental screenings for children as well as a network of resources. A home/school/community partnership that begins at birth and extends to age five.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Agency: Robeson Community College

(910) 272-3446 or (910) 272-3444

Professional Development provides services for licensed child care facilities in Robeson County. Services include professional development plans to assist child care providers and center plans to assist child care directors. The Classroom Assessment Scoring System (CLASS) and My Teaching Partner are also utilized. Professional Development Awards are offered to eligible participants.

Additionally, Professional Development Services offers a Praxis prep course to provide additional support with Praxis Core test preparation. Individuals completing the prep course and successfully passing the Praxis are eligible for a monetary award.

READY, SET, GO

Agency: Riverbend Services, Inc.

(910) 618-9260

Training and consultation is offered to child care providers on applying promotion, prevention, and intervention when working with children who experience developmental and/or behavioral health symptoms. The Pyramid Model and Cognitive Behavioral techniques are used to incorporate positive, problem-focused, and goal-directed interventions. Child care staff are trained on using specific techniques that promote a healthy environment for children to grow emotionally and developmentally.

Little Miss Farewell

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6

In 2014 and 2015 my dream was to be Little Miss Lumbee but my plans weren't God's plans. His plan for me was to become Little Miss Lumbee in 2016. He knew that I needed Lindsey, Kenda and Kaloni to be my guides. This was my year, the perfect year for me to reign.

First and foremost, I have to give all my thanks to the Lord Jesus Christ. Without him I wouldn't be here today. A year ago I had no clue what to expect when my name was called and that beautiful silver crown was placed upon my head.

Mr. Hardin and the staff at LRDA, thank you so much for the opportunity to travel and learn about my culture. It has been amazing. Mrs. Crystal Strong, you have been on this journey with me since the beginning. Thank you for your support and belief in me. Mrs. Natascha Tilson, hunni, you kept me on my toes with your calendar of events.

Mr. Richard, Michelle, and Cameron, thank you so much for the amazing photo opportunities. I just love the camera and you always let me have fun and do my own thing.

Mrs. Wanda McCall our Senior Mrs. Lumbee, thank you so much for always having kind and encouraging words when we were together. To Mrs. Betty Ms. NC Senior Citizen, you are a beautiful woman and the journey to your crown is something amazing. I love you both.

Mrs. Keli you are something special. You have been with me for 3 years now encouraging and always making me look beautiful with your magic hands. For that I know you will be blessed many times over. You were the first woman to make my hair have curls and I love you for that. To Mrs. Tia, thank you so much for working me in when we had those last minute events and making me look beautiful. You are a magician with that flat iron. Y'all Nu Bella Rocks!!!!

Mrs. Netasha, Mrs. Mattie, Mrs. Tona and the rest of the Pembroke Elementary Bumble Bee's, thanks so much for always making sure that I was taken care of and working with me on ALL those missed days!!! Mrs. Netasha, you opened the world of reading to me and I love it!!!!

Mrs. Kayla and Kynnady, I love you so much. You pushed me to be the best I could be and didn't let me stop. I can't wait till next time, shhhh it won't be long!!! Kynnady, you were my inspiration. From the time I saw you on stage, I knew one day I wanted to wear the crown that my best friend once wore. Now we are sisters for life.

Aunt Bev we finally get a break. We have been on this pageant run now since I was 3 years old and you have been driving us since the beginning. Not sure how I would have arrived at any destination without my favorite Speeder!! I love you so much.

Aunt Lesa and Uncle Bryan, thank you so much for believing in me even when I wanted to give up. Thanks so much for all those days you picked me up for events and made sure I always had the perfect earrings.

Ricky and Keno, I love you so much. My love for dance started with you. Now I can't be still. I can feel the movements just running through me anytime I hear music. You always made sure I had the most amazing routines and followed along the journey with me. The Just Dance future is bright and I am so blessed to be part of it.

Mr. Sonny and Mrs. Vonnie, thank you for always making sure I was at my events when my Mom couldn't be there. And Mrs. Vonnie, thank you so much for always making sure I had a full belly!

Mr. Kent and Mrs. Nahir thank you so much for letting me have all my sleepovers with my Kenda Boo. You never complained even when I was doing cartwheels through your house!

Mr. Terry and Mrs. Linda, thank you so much for your prayers throughout our reign. Mrs. Linda you worked so hard for our county during the aftermath of Hurricane Matthew and we all are blessed because of your hard work and dedication.

My brothers Dylan and Clark. I know I drive you both crazy being the middle child and only girl! I love you Pickle and Clarkie!!

Mr. Dano, thank you so much for always being encouraging and pushing me to work harder and trying all the new dance moves. You always motivated me to want more.

Daddy, I know pageants weren't your favorite but you learned to love them because of me. Thank you.

Mama Jean well we all know I wouldn't be standing on this stage if it wasn't for you. You have been my back bone, my motivator, and my shoulder to cry on through this amazing roller coaster. You didn't ever lose faith in me. And guess what, it's just the beginning.

My Mommy, thank you so much for allowing me to live out my dream. You worked so hard to make this all possible for me. I love you and I know I can do anything I set my mind too because you have shown me with hard work and prayer anything is possible.

Lindsey, where do I begin? My song bird and woman of faith. I love you so much and can't wait for your wedding day. You better get my bedroom ready in your house because you know I am coming to stay.

Kenda Boo, I love you so much. We are definitely sisters! Even though I am so much younger than you, you still took care of me and treated me just like your sister. Nothing will ever beat our ice cream trips, sleepovers, Netflix and late nights.

Kaloni my "KK". You taught me so much about native culture and I have grown to love the Pow Wow circle because of you. You are beautiful inside and out and I can't imagine this journey without you. I love you so much.

To my successor, you are in for one amazing year, enjoy the ride and have fun.

I would like to let everyone know this is not a farewell speech. This is just a temporary so long until my journey begins as Junior Miss Lumbee, Teen Miss Lumbee and ending as Miss Lumbee. I have so many dreams and the future belongs to those who dare to chase them.

The two hardest things to say in life are hello for the first time and good-bye for the last. Tonight, I am closing one of the most beautiful chapters in this book of my life. So, don't cry because it is over, smile because it happened.

For the last time, I am your:

Junior Miss Farewell

"Time flies, but not memories." – ka Natassa

"Be happy for this moment . . . This moment is your life!" – Omar Khayyan

Wow, where do I even begin to tell about my year? First, I want to thank the creator for allowing me the opportunity to represent this year. Last year on June 28th God truly shined down on this stage and blessed me with an opportunity of a lifetime to represent some of the most smart, beautiful and resilient people. And after everything this year, all the stories from my elders and learning more about who we are I can say just like Mr. Willie "I'm Proud to be a Lumbee Indian" even more so! It has been a fun and exciting year! It has truly been a journey and a learning experience of a lifetime. I have become the young lady that I am today because of the steps that made up this journey. I have learned so much from my experiences this year.

A special thank you to Millicent and John – my other parents – for being there for any questions or concerns. You truly were only one call away any time I had a question or needed anything. Momma Mil just answered me faster John. ?? Mr. Jamie and Mr. JD – Thanks for looking out for me this year at the powwows. To my powwow family – thank you for all the love and support you all have shown me. You have not seen the last of me in the circle. To my teachers and staff at school – thank you for being able to work with my crazy schedule this year. To Bobby who talked me into embarking on this journey at the last minute – I'm so glad I listened to you because I wouldn't change this journey/experience for anything in the world. Thank you for the miracles you have worked on my head and all my chair therapy and advice! Sheana and Amber, my two big sissys – Thank you for the love, time, and dedication you have shown me this year especially during the stoning parties. Love you both! Ms. Tabitha and Mrs. Rena – Mae thank you for the beautiful regalia's you have made for me this year. I received so many compliments on them throughout the year. Including the textile award at the Unity Conference I shared with Ms. Tabitha. Thank you for turning my visions into reality. Thanks to

Mrs. Ranessa for the stunning ideas for the regalia I competed in and the leather for my shawl. NuBella Salon – thank you for making sure I always looked my absolute best. Keli and Tia you ladies ROCK! Thanks to Uncle Rod, Chuck, and Ashleigh for the small things you did from me, from letting me use the Porsche for parades to small donations... It meant the world to me. Ms. Ashley – thanks for being there for the last-minute routines. You and daddy were always pushing me to be that better dancer that you always saw deep inside and for that I am thankful! Thank you to Ms. Layla for the beautiful songs you taught us – I will always remember them and cherish them. Thank you, Mrs. Cynthia @ Cyna's for all the stories. I have enjoyed them all and they will remain in my heart forever. Thank you to Mrs. Senora for the beautiful beaded crowns, they really do make a difference from the silver crowns and you captured us perfectly in your art. Thank you to Ella & Co. and Mr. Richard for wonderful photos this year and all the beautiful clothes that I have been able to model this year. I am here for you anytime you need a model in the tree! Dr. Carey Collins/staff and Frances Marie thanks for all the things you have done for me throughout this year.

Thank you to all my supporters that have really helped me this year that I may have failed to mention. Because of you I was able to live out my dream to its fullest potential. Kam, my little fireball – I wish I had the energy to stunt, flip, and everything else like you do. Keep it up! I hope all your dreams come true... keep shooting high. Kenda – I enjoyed sharing this experience with you and I look forward to seeing your future unfold. Keep me posted about our trip to Cali! I wish you nothing but the best! Lindsey – I want to wish you and Andy the best of luck in your future. It has been an honor to serve on this court with each of you. You guys have all proven that once again, Lumbee women are some of the most beautiful, graceful, and strong women in the world! I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors Lastly Momma and Daddy – Well . . . I was definitely blessed when God gave me parents like both of you. You have no idea how thankful I am to have parents like y'all. You guys have sacrificed so much time, money, and energy for me to be able to live my dream this year and for that, I will always be grateful... from burning up gas from being on the road 24/7 to making sure I'm always on point. You two always made sure I had everything I needed to make this year absolutely amazing! You both really do deserve a BEST PARENT's EVER award! Love you both to pieces! Korbyn, my brother and little soccer player, thanks for the support all year long! I love you!

To whoever has the honor to hold this title next, remember these few words: Isaiah 41:10 – "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." It has been an honor representing my strong and beautiful Lumbee people, and for the last time I am proud to say that I am your

Teen Miss Lumbee Farewell

As I reflect on my reign as Teen Miss Lumbee, I think back to the very beginning during my competition phase where three words come to mind; purpose, pressure, and perseverance. These factors catapulted me into yet another fairytale year as a Lumbee Ambassador; a title that I've been very humbled and honored to hold for my Lumbee people during 2016-2017. With that said, the end of my service is here but my platform (Teaching Everyone About Music) will carry on throughout my life as I will continue to mentor young Lumbees about the importance of music and the impact that it has had in my life.

This year has been particularly special to me and somewhat emotional as I completed my senior year in high school. It was challenging to say the least; balancing a part-time job, keeping my grades up and serving my people kept me busy but humbled me as well, showing how truly blessed I am as a young Lumbee woman. Having lost my uncle Dwayne and Aunt Flossie before and after the pageant last year was especially challenging. I will never forget the laughs and jokes that they brought to my family. Most of all, I will always remember Aunt Flossie's inspirational influence on my life; pushing me to exceed through my teenage years and shouting "Fix it Jesus" if I got out of line.

I also witnessed a movement of our community coming together through volunteering to help in time of need as Hurricane Matthew devastated our area and left a sobering mark that we will never forget. Though times were tough and still are in recovery mode, we have put our full trust in God that he will never leave us or forsake us in our most desperate hour. I participated in many functions such as cultural school presentations, parades, powwows and special appearances. Always willing to travel, my trips to Cherokee and Albuquerque were highlights of the year that hold dear to my heart. Making new friends with folks from different tribes, cultural areas are and will always be a treat for me. Having a year like this was a life changing experience and I thank you, my people, for that.

I can't go on without recognizing the beautiful, talented, witty and fun loving sisters that God placed in my life this year to share in my reign:

Lindsey – Where has the time gone? This year has been a blast with you. I am very thankful for the connection we gained from our reign. In you I know that I will always have not only a friend but a sister too. I can't wait for you to embark on this next chapter in your life. I love you future Mrs. Brayboy!

Kaloni – My little baller, shot caller! I've watched you grow into an extraordinary young lady. We've made some of the best memories that will last a lifetime. Your future is very bright! Knock them out girl, I love you always Lon!

Kamryn – You are truly my personal mini-me! I've enjoyed each car ride, ice cream date, and sleepover and most importantly every second I have been able to cherish with you. You've been able to brighten my days when I felt my lowest. Always remember to shine and leave a little sparkle wherever you go. I love you more than you'll ever know.

Mrs. Wanda – Thank you for all your words of encouragement throughout this year. I will use them wisely. You are an amazing lady and I'm so very glad we had the opportunity to meet.

As Cali Rae Turner put it – "The best thing about having a sister is that I always have a friend" . . . I love you all!

My support line this year was awesome! I would not be here if it wasn't for the loving support of my mother, father and brother. Mom, thanks for pushing me to do my best, even when I didn't feel like it. Daddy, thanks for rounding up the sponsors and forking out the extra cash when I know you wanted to cringe! Kajun, thanks for being that loving brother that I can go to when I need to talk or just hang out. You all are my lifeline and I love you dearly. My pageant committee rocked, consisting of my Aunt Marla, Cousin Alexis, Aunt Torrey, Aunt Deidra, my voice instructor Jeanne Koonce and most importantly my Gigi, whom I love more than all the fishes in the sea. I'll always be your "Monya" Gigi. I thank you all for that spark you gave me and the determination to excel. I am thankful also to my wonderful sponsors; Fullers Barbeque, Keli Harris Locklear and the NuBella Team, Ella and Company, MWEC Electrical Construction, Speech -N- Progress, Miss Carmen Dietrich, Prospect UMC and all the countless others. Your support was a blessing throughout the year and I was honored, humbled and thankful to have your backing.

I'd like to leave with a special note to all the contestants competing this evening. I wish each and every one of you the best of luck. Remember that nothing comes easy. Always strive to achieve your ultimate goal. It's not about winning but always doing your very best. And if you win, indulge in the moment and never forget who you are; you are Lumbee, my beautiful People of the Pines! Again, thank you all for this opportunity to serve as your 2016-2017 Teen Miss Lumbee. I will cherish it for a lifetime . . .

Miss Lumbee Farewell

Before I progress through the extent of my Miss Lumbee journey, it is imperative that I first give total credit to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. By His grace and mercy, He blessed me with the strength and guidance that I needed in order to start, sustain, and complete a successful year as a Lumbee Ambassador. It has always been my dream to be Miss Lumbee and to represent my Lumbee people with grace, dignity, and honor. Through my faith alone I frequently found comfort in Psalms 37:4 – "delight yourself in the Lord, and He will give you the desires of your heart." It has always been my heart's desire to direct my efforts of engagement towards servitude. Thus, I have perceived and recognized the opportunity to serve my Lumbee people as the highest honor I have ever been awarded. While Miss Lumbee was my title, serving as a role model to my beautiful Teen, Junior, and Little Miss Lumbee was one of my favorite duties.

Kenda, you have literally been my sunshine on a cloudy day. Your free and gentle spirit has certainly taught me that no matter what I face in life, beauty can be found in every situation. Even though we have completely different taste in music, I have loved every moment of our joyous car rides together. Without a doubt you have assured me that when life gets tough it is okay to simply blast the music and sing your heart out.

Kaloni, throughout the course of this year I have watched you transform into a young lady fascinated with her culture. Although your plate was continuously full with extracurricular activities, you still managed to give your all to your reign; for that I am so proud of you.

Kamryn, the gift of your energetic spirit continuously brought out my inner child. When times were tough your presence always helped me to maintain a smile. I have thoroughly enjoyed the countless hours we spent together eating, singing, and laughing until we cried. Although life for you has only begun, I want you to progressively mature into the strong Lumbee woman that God has called you to be.

The extent of support that I received this year has been unmeasurable. However, your support has never went unnoticed and words cannot describe my gratitude for each and every one of you. To my immediate family mom, dad, Zach, and Judah, thank you for always believing in me when it was hard for me to believe in myself. Mom, thank you for being my best friend and confidante; I will never be able to thank you enough. Dad, thank you for reminding me to always "get the job done." It is because of you that I stand as the strong, Christian woman that I am today. Erica Dellinger Atkinson, thank you for seeing in me that of which I could not recognize myself. You worked tirelessly to bring out hidden qualities that were deep inside of me such as, courage, boldness, and certainly confidence. Andy, you have been my saving grace. I can't thank you enough for everything you have done throughout my reign. Things such as traveling with me to every event that you could, pinning my crown and bow, and also being a listening ear in the times I needed you the most definitely never went unnoticed. You have made sure to make this a memorable year for me and I could never express how special you've never failed to make me feel. I love you.

It is without regard that sponsors Donna Lowry, Ella & Co., Richard Mathis Photography, and All Occasions are acknowledged. Undoubtedly, your generous support granted me the opportunity to enjoy my reign without the cumbersome weight of financial burdens. Mr. James Hardin and the LRDA staff, thank you for all the time and resources you and your organization have invested in the Ambassadors.

With this in mind, over the past year I have traveled thousands of miles from the East coast to the West coast spreading my culture, faith, and the origins of my Lumbee people. However, without hesitation I affirm that Robeson County will forever be the place that I call home. My 2016-2017 platform was "Mentoring to Motivate." Now that my reign has come to an end, my biggest prayer is that I have made a positive impact on the lives of our youth. Each day make it your primary objective to be a better "you" than you were the day before. Consistent and efficient progression of yourself is the key to success. For as the bible details in 2 Timothy 1:7, "for God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind." This empowerment is confirmed in Isaiah 54:17 and in 1 John 4:4, respectively, by the explanation that no weapon formed against you shall prosper because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. M.F. Moonzajer stated, "my culture is my identity and personality. It gives me spiritual, intellectual and emotional distinction from others, and I am proud of it." I stand proudly by this quote as a Lumbee Woman.

Approximately one year ago I received my heart's desire by being crowned the 2016-2017 Miss Lumbee. Now without further ado, I humbly pass this prestigious title to the next deserving Lumbee woman. I encourage you to serve our people with pride, honor, and dignity throughout the duration of your reign. Best of luck in all your endeavors.

Participate in PROJECT ACCESS

Achieving College Opportunities, Community Engagement and Student Success
~ A partnership between the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina, the University of North Carolina at Pembroke, Robeson Community College, and the Public Schools of Robeson County ~

Project ACCESS, an initiative funded by the U.S. Department of Education, focuses on improving access to higher education and career preparedness for American Indian youth of Robeson County.

Students, Parents and Community Members throughout the County can participate in Project ACCESS in a variety of ways, including:

- * Summer residential camps at UNCP
- * Saturday day camps at UNCP
- * Community camps at tribal centers and B&G clubs
- * An academic tutoring program
- * College Day
- * The Career and College Promise (CCP) program
- * Health Science and STEM summer camps at RCC

For more information, call Project ACCESS personnel:

UNCP Summer Residential Camps

Project ACCESS will host FREE summer residential camps (four days and three nights each) on UNC Pembroke's campus for American Indian high school students. Students will have the opportunity to experience college life and learn more about the college application process and financial aid, while participating in cultural activities and a wide variety of other activities aimed at improving college and career preparedness.

- ★ Each camp will host 24 American Indian high school students from Robeson County who are rising sophomores, juniors and seniors.

- ★ Applicants will select one (1) of the following dates to attend a camp (additional dates may be added):

☐ JULY 9-12 ☐ JULY 16-19 ☐ JULY 23 - 26 ☐ JULY 30 - AUGUST 2

Applications are available online at www.uncp.edu/projectaccess and will also be available for pickup from PSRC Youth Development Specialists. Contact Myia Reyes, UNCP Community Engagement Specialist at 910.775.4663 or myia.reyes@uncp.edu for more information. Applications are due as soon as possible. Applications for UNCP camps are also available at the front desk of the tribal office. The Project ACCESS Director, Rita Locklear, can be reached Monday - Wednesday at 910.522.2215 or rjlocklear@lumbeetribe.com.

Funded by the Department of Education - Award # S299A150054.

Lumbee Regional Development Association, Inc. Early Head Start

Early Head Start was established under the 1994 Head Start Reauthorization Act to serve low-income pregnant women and families with infants and toddlers. As a family centered community based program, services are tailored to enhance children's physical, social, emotional and intellectual development. Parenting activities are provided to strengthen parental roles that help nurture and guide the developmental growth of their young children. In addition, the Early Start Program responds to the unique strengths and needs of each participating child and family's developmental, ethnic, and cultural heritage.

Early Head Start has a broad range of flexibility in how services are rendered such as to families of young children with disabilities or developmental delays.

We are committed to the success of your family.
