James Marshall Grand Marshall

Mr. John "Ned" Sampson is a retired coach and educator, who was a very outstanding athlete and coach. He is a 1952 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. He served as a basketball coach and teacher at Magnolia High School from 1953 to 1967, and at Pembroke High School from 1968 to 1977.

Mr. Sampson received many honors in his coaching and basketball career. In 2005, he was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the North Carolina High School Athletic Association. He was inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame of UNC-Pembroke in 1980. He received honors from the North Carolina Coaches Association for serving over 20 years. He had a winning record and coached championship teams in men's and women's basketball in the Indian High School Athletic Conference.

In high school, "Ned" Sampson excelled in three sports. His greatest achievement however, was in basketball. Playing at a height of 6 foot, 2 inches and 190 pounds, Sampson was known as a pure shooter who could use either hand. Sampson was featured in the book Playing Before an Overflow Crowd by Bruce Barton and Tim Brayboy that chronicled the all-Indian basketball league, wherein Sampson played and coached.

Mr. Sampson had an outstanding career at UNC-Pembroke. Although his talent was mostly unnoticed nationally, he averaged 24.3 points per game in his senior year at UNC-P in 1952. He scored a school record of 40 points against Campbell University. Mr. Sampson played in a game against a traveling All-Star team. After the game, Sampson received a letter from Dick Groat, an All-American basketball star at Duke University, saying he was the best basketball player he had ever played against.

Coach Sampson has served as a leader in several civic and community organizations. He served as volunteer coach for Little League Baseball for Indian youths in Robeson county from 1953 to 1963. He is charter member and long term leader in the Pembroke Lions Club, and a member of Berea Baptist Church in Pembroke.

Mr. Sampson family has an outstanding record in basketball. Mr. Sampson's son Kelvin, played basketball and baseball at Pembroke High School and at UNC-Pembroke. Kelvin Sampson served as head coach of men's basketball at Oklahoma University for 12 years. He is now an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Bucks NBA Professional Basketball Team. Ned and Kelvin are the only father-son tandem in the Athletic Hall of Fame at UNC-Pembroke.

Grand Marshall

Mrs. Florence Ransom is a life long resident of Pembroke, N.C. She is the wife of the late Rev. Julian Ransom and has two daughters; Vicki Ransom of Cary, N.C and Lisa Cullum of Norcross, Georgia. She is also the proud grandmother of Julian and Mackenzie Cullum, also of Norcross, Georgia.

Mrs. Ransom was a stay at Home mom while her children were growing up. During this period, she was very active with the Home Demonstration Club, PTA, 4-H Club and also served as a Girl Scout advisor.

As her children grew older, Mrs. Ransom worked with the Lumbee Regional Development Association's Center for the Arts. This position allowed her to become involved with the Miss Lumbee Pageant. For many years she served as the chaperone and business manager for Miss Lumbee. She has also served as the chaperone for several recipients of the Miss North Carolina title. Her involvement with Miss North Carolina preliminary pageants allowed her to promote Miss Lumbee and also attend the Miss America pageants. She has also served as a committee member of the Miss UNC-Pembroke pageants.

Later in life she became the district manager of the Victim and Justice Services office. She supervised 6 county offices and would also recruit summer interns to work in the offices.

In 2002 Mrs. Ransom retired. However, she still remains very active in the community and is frequently asked to judge pageants and provide guidance and encouragement to young ladies.

On behalf of the Ransom family, we feel honored to have our mother serve as a Grand Marshall of the Lumbee Homecoming parade.

Congratulations on the 42nd Annual Lumbee Homecoming

Little Miss Lumbee

I can't believe that a year has already past since I was crowned Little Miss Lumbee. I have been an extremely busy little girl having the responsibility to be a role model for my people and I have enjoyed every minute. I want to thank the Lord for giving me this opportunity for He is my "Amazing Grace".

It has been an honor to represent my Lumbee people with three other beautiful and wonderful Lumbee girls. My title has taken me to many different places this year. We have had a ball from ice skating at Rockefeller Center, eating cheesecake on Broadway, singing Harper Valley PTA and Micheal Jackson on the LRDA van, and passing out our Pow Wow flyers at The Gathering of Nations. Every journey was "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" and a 365 day voyage out of this world.

Christmas Time is a time for giving. The Ambassadors' theme was "Where Are You Christmas" and with that, we were able to define the true meaning of Christmas by sharing it with a little girl that we made our Lumbee Ambassadors' Princess. She enjoyed opening and opening and opening all the many gifts that were given to her. I was so excited. During this year, my family and I have had the opportunity to share many, many days with a group of outstanding people.

Allison, that BMW is so you! Aren't you glad that Mama took you by the car lot that day on the way back from Riegelwood? Thank you for loving me and being so good to me. In New York, I laughed so hard when your Daddy was running down the street in Time Square with that toboggan on his head and you said "Look, Daddy looks like the robber on Home Alone!" Guess what? He really did! And, Ms. Patty made sure that I was close by and she always called me, the baby.

Alexis, I will miss cuddling in your lap on all those road trips. It did not matter that we disagreed two minutes prior to loading the van. I still ended up sleeping in your lap. You never turned me away. I hope I will always be Part of Your World. Thank you for putting my hair up in the Navajo bun and you finally perfected it. Ms. Marla made sure we were on it!! There was never any chewing gum, texting, talking or crossing our legs during performances.

Madison, continue to keep that kind heart of yours and grace others with your smile and dance. You never complained about anything. I will miss all those hugs and kisses that you gave. Mrs. Ranessa would make sure that our outfits matched. She could pick out such pretty colors.

Mama and Daddy, I have enjoyed traveling as a family this year. Mama, we have been so busy. I love you so much! I can hardly wait to cuddle with you on the couch and snuggle. We will have so many stories to re-visit.

Daddy, how did you drive that van full of women? You had the patience of Job!! You never, never complained. Thank you for being my number one supporter, you know I am Daddy's Little Girl and I love you so much!

Tristan, I love you big brother and you never got bored traveling with me this year because you got to enjoy being around beautiful girls!! Lucky you!!!

Pa Merle, Grandma Bessie (Rowland), Grandma Bessie (Prospect) and Papa Gurney, thank you for loving and supporting me as I represented our people. I love each one of you so much!!!

Lumbee Regional Development Association and Board of Directors, thank you for your full support this year. To my family and sponsors, thank you for all your support.

Ms. Natascha, thank you for a wonderful year and organizing our appearances and trips.

To the next little girl to win the title, I hope you are blessed with a wonderful year too! Being Little Miss Lumbee is about being a little girl representing her people through great pride, respect and dignity. Be the best you can be and treat everyone with kindness, for God will truly bless you. I hope my dream of touching someone's life through fellowship and song has come true. I leave you with my personal acronym for Lumbee;

L is for Legacy
U is for Unity
M is for Membership of 55,000
B is for Beauty
E is for Elders and
E is for Eager to tell you that it has been truly a blessing being your Little Miss Lumbee.

May God Bless You,

Junior Miss Lumbee

Hello Everyone and Welcome to our 42nd Lumbee Homecoming!

I am Madison Elexis Davenport, your Junior Miss Lumbee and the daughter of Mrs. Ranessa Kennedy and Mr. Jack Evan Davenport. I am so excited to say that I will officially be a teenager in a few more days when I celebrate my thirteenth birthday! I have two wonderful brothers, Matthew and Kade. I am an "A" student at Beulaville Junior High where I am entering the 8th grade. I am a member of the National Jr. Beta Club and a member of my school cheerleading team. Go Panthers! I also enjoy tap, ballet, jazz, and lyrical dancing and I attend Cedar Grove Baptist Church in Fairmont, NC.

Additionally, I want to thank all of my friends from Beulaville and my best friends Lyndsey, Peyton, Austin, Alaina, Forest, and Tristan, for your love, support, and friendship.

The thing I am most proud of this year was being part of a very special and talented group of young ladies, Allison, Alexis, and Mahlea. Everywhere we went and everywhere we performed, was always about what "WE" could do to represent our Lumbee people and never about what "I" could do. We worked together, we appreciated the talents of each other, and we formed a bond that I know will carry us through a lifetime. Allison, you always made me laugh and you always made our trips so much fun, but you have also done an outstanding job as our Miss Lumbee! I love you and I am proud to have served as an ambassador with you.

Alexis, I know that God put you in my life for a reason, because we have served as Lumbee Ambassadors not once but, twice together! You are my protecting big sister, a gift, a friend, and you play a very important role in my life! I am sorry that I am growing up but, it's ok because I aspire to be just like you. Mahlea, my little sister, you have been a joy! Thank you for always bringing a smile to my face and warmth to my heart with your beautiful voice! I will miss you all and I love each of you more than you will ever know!

To my Lumbee people, thank you for all of the kind words of praise, the smiles, the opportunities and the beautiful memories. I love you!

With Grace and Gratitude,

I am your 2009 - 2010 Junior Miss Lumbee,

Madison Elexis Davenport
Junior Miss Lumbee 2009-2010

This past year has been absolutely amazing! I must give thanks to God for blessing me each and every day of my life! I can not even begin to tell you how grateful I am to have served as your Junior Miss Lumbee. I have traveled to many fantastic places, performed at many events, spoke at schools all over North Carolina about our Lumbee culture, danced at many powwows, and met lots of new and wonderful people. I and the other ambassadors and their families traveled everywhere together.

I had the time of my life in New York, ice-skating at Rockefeller Center, shopping in Times Square, visiting Chinatown and Little Italy, and I will never forget getting up very early in the morning to be on the Today Show! A few short weeks after that I was off to Albuquerque, New Mexico to the Gathering of Nations and the Miss Indian World pageant. All of which will remain in my heart and a part of me forever.

I am blessed with so many wonderful people who have helped me this year as I served as your Junior Miss Lumbee. Mom and Dad, Matt, and Kade, you have been so loving and understanding and I appreciate all the guidance and support you have always given me. I want to thank Grandma Chris who made the most beautiful regalia

I have ever seen and for traveling with me whenever I needed. I Love you. I want to thank My Ma-Ma and Granddaddy Davenport, Geno, and Aunt Rose for your time and love. I also want to thank Ms. Amber for my beautiful clothes and Mrs. Nicole, you are an awesome dance teacher. My sponsors are the best! Thanks from the bottom of my heart to Dr. Marcus Lowry, Native Angels, Eric and Karen Locklear, The Staffing Alliance, Jeff and Daphne Wynn, Sun Coast Electrical, Alec and Lisa Hunt, Don and Loretha Carter, Aunt Joyce Locklear, Davenport Designs, Corky and Joanna Hayes, and Ms. Libb Maynor. I would also like to thank Mrs. Donna Lowry of Caring Touch, for not only being so supportive, year after year, of the Lumbee Ambassadors, but for teaching me how important it is to give. I also want to thank the LRDA Board of Directors and our Executive Director, Mr. James Hardin. I hope I have made you proud.

Mrs. Buffy Malcolm, Mrs. Lucinda Oxendine, Mrs. Elizabeth Straughn, and Ms. Erica Dellinger, thank you for all of your advice, guidance, and love. Billy, John, Patrick, Lee, Triston, and the drummers from the Boys and Girls Club, thank you for friendship and fun times. John, I will remember that, "What you put into life is what you'll get out of life."

Teen Miss Lumbee

Traveling across North Carolina as a Lumbee Ambassador has been an adventure this year but growing in friendship and knowledge has been a dynamic quest. I have met many individuals from all facets of life and will treasure the impact of those precious moments. In Seven Springs North Carolina, which is in the middle of nowhere, we met Ms. Lisa Mozingo, a 19-year-old beautiful, young woman that exuded joy, peace and excitement about life. What made her so unique is that she displayed these characteristics from a wheelchair where she had been confined to one year prior to our visiting this quaint town. Witnessing her disposition taught me that we should be appreciative for our lives just as they are and strive to enjoy our present moment.

As an ambassador in 2004-2005, Unity was our platform. However, this time around, I would have to say that promoting "Love" has been our main objective. When we made appearances, it was evident that we shared a bond that was unbreakable even if we performed in different rooms. My love for my fellow ambassadors is described as follows:

Allison, we started our reign as complete strangers but have cultivated more of a sister relationship without the drama of sisterhood. LOL!!! I do not believe I have ever shared as many laughs with someone as I have you and especially when we were onstage talking under our breath and trying to keep our composure while our Moms were giving us the eye. I am going to miss your jokes most of all and how you always know the right thing to say when I need it the most. Your spiritual closeness to God has been a blessing to me as I feel His presence when you sing. It is my prayer that our relationship will continue to grow and that we will always be sisters.

Madison, I have watched you grow in to a beautiful and unique, young woman. This may be the hardest goodbye for me. We parted ways once before but we hoped it would not be for long and as fate would have it, here we are again. I could not imagine being a Lumbee Ambassador without Madison Elexis Davenport by my side. I commend you on all the hard work you put in to being Junior Miss Lumbee as you travel two hours one way to make a thirty minute appearance. That is absurd to me but you never complain or say that you are tired. If you ever need me, know that I am just a phone call away. Remember, that through your dancing, you bear all the passion in your soul and with that passion, you can accomplish great things.

Mahlea, out of the entire group, I believe our relationship was the most entertaining by far. From fussing to loving each other so much it hurts. An unshakable bond was formed. Nothing can possibly replace your sweet hugs and gentle ways. Keep your bubbly and kind personality because we all know there is only one "Mahlea Celeste Hunt".

To My Other Families, I have no way of expressing how much you all mean to me. Not only did you develop three lovely individuals, but you also gave me the opportunity to be part of your lives and you treated me as if I were your daughter too. So I thank you for your generosity.

Mom!!! This has been one long and trying year for both of us but somehow we have made it work. I thank you for pushing me to do my best and definitely never accepting less. As I prepare to leave home and embark on the journey of college life, I know that our Mother/ Daughter bond will sustain our separation and prepare us for the next phase. You are the BEST and I would not trade you for anything. Not even a Ford Convertible Mustang!!! Actually, I would consider it. LOL!!!

To All My People of the Lumbee Tribe, thank you for the opportunity to be your ambassador and represent each one of you. It is my hope that I fulfilled my obligation and that I made you proud. In the future when I am asked, "Honey, Who's Your People", it will be with distinction that I say the 55,000 members of the Lumbee Tribe are my people.

Peace out,

Alexis Vivian Locklear

Miss Lumbee

When you dream of things that seem impossible, just believe in yourself, for your dreams are in your heart just waiting to be discovered. As a child, I dreamed of being a woman, with dignity and pride, and a woman who could have the opportunity to represent the Lumbee people with all that is within me and be blessed along the way. As I come before you with those qualities, I am proud to have had the opportunity to represent you as Miss Lumbee 2009-2010.

I would like to thank my family who has been there for me to make sure I stay on task and support me during my travels and appearances. They have been the greatest and I would not have made it without them and God. I love them so much.

My court this year has been a blessing to me along with their families who I love dearly. They are my special angels and a part of my family. I have the utmost respect for these three young ladies, who have made my reign as Miss Lumbee a true blessing. We have traveled together, laughed together, cried together, prayed together and performed together. One of our greatest blessings was when we performed, "Amazing Grace" because without His "Amazing Grace" we would not be here.

To Alexis, what a journey we have had together. You are like my sister. You are a beautiful young lady with a great personality. You have so much talent and I know great things are going to happen for you. Sharing my reign with you has been the greatest and I will truly miss our time together. Thank you for making sure my hair was beautiful for all of the Pow Wow's. What would I have done without you?

To Madison, you are beautiful inside and out. You have represented the Lumbee people as Junior Miss with pride. Your talent and personality will take you a long way. Keep dancing because you dance like an angel. I know that you will continue to have great things happen for you. I love you.

To Mahlea, you are a special little girl. You have represented the Lumbee people as Little Miss with honor and your voice, what can I say. You are awesome . . . You are a wonderful and talented little girl and great things will happen for you. Thanks for being the best, I love you.

To my extended families, the Lumbee Ambassadors/ Parents, I am so thankful for having you guys in my life, all of you have been there for me and I am so thankful to have had your prayers, trust and friendship this past year, I love all of you dearly.

I would like to thank you my Lumbee people for a year filled with happiness and possibilities. Thanks for affording me the opportunity to travel and along the way, touch someone's life, because for me, my life has been touched during this extraordinary journey.

Blessings Forever,

Allison Rana Mitchell
